

Army Public Health Nursing

The Mission of Army Public Health Nursing is to provide essential public health nursing services to deployed, field, and garrison environments with a vision of promoting ready and fit soldiers prospering in healthy military communities.

Hours of Operation
0730-1630

APHN Staff

Ms. Valarie Camak-Isaac
(Chief, APHN)

Ms. Piccina Spence
(Epi, Physician Assistant)

Ms. Shaundra Robinson
(Community Health Nurse)

Ms. Kaitlynn Laucht
(Community Health Nurse)

Ms. Juana Henderson
(Epi, Health Tech)

Ms. Amanda Goodell
(Community Health Tech)

“Caring for the Rock”

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

BLDG 308

1061 HARMON AVE

FORT STEWART, GA 31314

(571)-801-5353

Army Public Health Nursing (APHN) Fort Stewart & Hunter Army Airfield

Tobacco Cessation Program

- Self referral or referral from PCM
- Monthly Tobacco Cessation class
- Education and Counseling
- Variety of medication options

LTBI/Tuberculosis (TB)

- Evaluation and education for positive TB Skin Tests
- Case management for clients with TB infection and disease
- Medication refills

Health Promotion Activities

- Unit and Community Education
- Health and Safety Fairs
- Resources and information
- Partner with community stakeholders to address community health needs
- Nutritional Counseling

Travel Medicine

- Education
- Recommended vaccinations

Epidemiology & Disease Surveillance

Rabies Prevention Program

- Rabies Advisory Board
- Reporting and tracking
- Treatment

Heat/Cold Injury Surveillance

- Reporting and tracking

HIV Management

- Notification
- Education
- Counseling and Case Management

Pre-exposure Prophylaxis Program (Prep)

- Self referral
- Education and counseling
- Prescription and condoms provided

Emergency Preparedness and Response

- Public Health Response Team Activation
- COVID
- Ebola
- Monkeypox
- Influenza (Flu)

Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs)

- Communicable Disease Surveillance
- Education and counseling
- Treatment and follow up

Child, Youth, & School Services

- Health Consultant to CYSS
- Education on medications, communicable disease, and special needs
- Infectious disease identification and control
- Inspection of CYSS facilities and Family Child Care homes